"Commissioner"
Louis

Just arrived From the Continent

Plying all hands

The FOX and the GOOSE.

A Fox there is who has such Knowledge
That his Dwelling House he calls a "COLLEGE"
And Geese flock to him from all quarters
Bringing Wives & Sons & Daughters
He tells the Geese, that their ills he's able
To cure with his Pills of Vegetable

He makes GOOSE pay his "COLLEGE" rent
And calls himself the "President"!

Another "COLLEGE" there is I ween
Which may in Newman Street be seen

And so Goose thinks he can, good lack!
For "Cackle" hath great faith in "Quack" -
So he lives on GOOSE each day I ween,
His House is built on "Ganders Green",
His Carriage Wheels on "Goose Grease" turn,
He Fat of Goose for oil doth burn.

And not in trifles over nice,
'Tis he himself enacts the "Vice"!!

And there two Foxes, "Charles & John",
Carry the very same System on -

He plucks their feathers for his Bed,
On Down of Goose he lays his head,
He gets his Goose & eke his Stuffing
By cramming Geese with Pills & Puffing;
He writes his Puffs with "Grey Goose quill",
Of "Goose-berry-fool" he has his fill.

And tho' 'tis strange 'tis also true,
He is himself the "Members" too!!!

Think of this life; but, for my single self,
I had as lief not be, as live to be
